world, and estop and convict the principal offender against truth, public decency and the rights of reputation.

My inducement to do this is the fact that Mr. Bowen has of late repeatedly declared that he has never disavowed his charges against Mr. Beecher, but that he yet insisted on their truth. And now the public can understand the brave silence which the great preacher has kept under the protracted storm of slander. He had covenanted to barry the past, and to maintain peace and brotherhood. The violation of that agreement by Henry C. Bowen unscales my mouth, if it does not open the lips of the pastor of Plymouth Church.

New York, May 29, 1873.

THE DISAYOWAL.

We three men, carnestly desiring to re-move all causes of offense existing between us, real or fancied, and to make Christian us, real or fancied, and to make Christian reparation for injuries done or supposed to be done, and to efface the disturbed past, and to provide concord, good will, and love for the future, do declare and covenant each to the other as follows:

1. I, Henry C. Bowen, having given credit, perhaps without due consideration, to tales and in endoes affecting Henry Ward Beecher, and being influenced by them, as was natural to a man who receives impressions suddenly, to the extent of repeating them (guardedly, however, and within limitations, and not for the purpose of injuring him, but strictly in the confidence of con-ultation,) now feel that therein I did him wrong. Therefore I disavow all the charges and imputations that have been attributed to me as having been by me made against Henry Ward Beecher—and I declare, fully and without reserve, that I know attributed to me as naving been by me made against Henry Ward Beecher—and I declare, fully and without reserve, that I know nothing which should prevent me from extending to him my nest cordial fsiend-hip, confidence, and Christian fellowship. And I expressly withdraw all the charges, imputations, and innendoes imputed as having been made and attered by me, and set forth in a letter written to me by Theodore Tilton on the first day of January, 1871, (a copy of which letter is hereunto annexed)—and I sincerely regret having made any imputations, charges or innendoes unfavorable to the Christian character of Mr. Beecher. And I covenant and promise that for all future time I will never by word ordeed recur to, repeat, or allude to, any or either of said charges, imputations and innendoes.

2. And 1. Theodore Tilton, do, of my free will and friendly spirit toward Henry C. Bowen and Henry Ward Beecher, hereby covenant and agree that I will never again repeat by word of mouth or otherwise any of the allegations, or impurations, or innendoes repeat by word of mouth or otherwise any of the allegations, or impurations, or inuendoes contained in my letter hereunto annexed, or any other injurious imputations or allegations suggested by or growing out of these—and that I will never again bring up or hint at any cause of difference or ground of complaint beretofore existing between the said Henry C. Bowen and myself, or the said Henry Ward Beecher.

5. And I, Henry Ward Beecher, put the past forever out of sight and out of memory. I deeply regret the causes of suspicion,

I deeply regret the causes of suspicion, jealousy, and estrangement which have come between us. It is a joy to me to have my old regard for Henry C. Bowen and Theodore Tilton restored, and a happiness to me to resume the old relations of love, respect and reliance to each and both of them. If I have all any the respect to the control of the control respect and reliance to each and both of them. If I have said any thing injurious to the reputation of either, or have detracted from their standing and fame as Christian gentlemen and members of my church, I re-voke it all, and heartily covenant to repair and reinstate them to the extent of my lower.

(Signed,) H. C. Bowes. THEODORE TILTON. H. W. BEECHER. Brooklyn, April 2, 1872. MIL TILTON'S LETTER.

Впооктух, Jan. 1, 1871.

Mr. Henry C. Bowen: Sin: I received last evening your sudden soil: I received ast evening your states, one with the Independent, the other with the Brooklyn Union. With reference to this act of yours I will make a plain statement of facts. It was during the early part of the rebellion, if I recollect aright, when you first intimated to me that Rev. Henry Ward Receiver had computited acts of adult. Ward Beecher had committed acts of adult-cry for which, if you should expose him, he would be driven from the pulpit. From that time onward your references to the subject were frequent and always accom-panied with the exhibition of deep seated injury to your heart. In a letter which you addressed to me from Woodstock, June 16, 1863, referring to this subject, you said, "I sometimes feel that I must break silence; that I must no longer suffer as a Ward Beecher had committed acts of adultsaid, "I sometimes feel that I must break silence; that I must no longer suffer as a dumb man and be made to bear a load of grief most unjustly. One word from me would make — a rebellion throughout Christendom, I had almost said, and you know it. You have just a little of the evidence from the great volume in your possession. I am not pursuing a phantom—but solemnly brooding over an awful reality."

but solemnly brooding over an awful reality."

Subsequent to this letter, and on frequent intervals from this till now, you have repeated the statement that you could at any moment expel Henry Ward Beecher from Brooklyn. You have reiterated the same thing, not only to me, but to others. Moreover, during the year just closed your letters on the subject were marked with more feeling than heretofore, and were not unfrequently coupled with your emphatic declaration that Mr. Beecher ought not to be allowed to occupy a public position as a Christian teacher and preacher.

On the 25th of December, 1870, at an interview in your house, at which Mr. Oliver Johnson and I were present, you spoke freely and indignantly against Mr. Beecher as an unsafe visitor in the families of his congregation. You alluded by mame to a weman, now a widow, whose husband's death you did not doubt was hastened by his knowledge that Mr. Beecher had maintained with her an improper intimacy. As if to leave no doubt on the minds of either Mr. Johnson or myself, you informed us that Mr. Beecher had made to you a confession of guilt, and had with tears implored your forgiveness. After Mr. Johnson retired from this interview, you related to me the case of a woman of whom you said (as nearly as I can recollect your plored your forgiveness. After Mr. Johnson retired from this interview, you related to me the case of a woman of whom you said (as nearly as I can recollect your words) that "Mr. Beecher took her in his arms by force, threw her down upon the sofa, accomplished upon her his deviltry, and left her.

During your recital of this tale you were filled with anger toward Mr. Beecher: You said, with terrible emphasis, that he ought not to remain a week longer in his pulpit. You immediately suggested that a demand should be made upon him to quit his sacred office. You volunteered to bear to him such a demand in the form of an open letter, which you would present to him with your own hand, and you pledged yourself to sustain the demand which the letter should make, namely, "that he should for reasons which he explicitly knew, immediately cease from his ministry at Plymouth church, and retire from Brooklyn." The first draft of this letter did not contain the phrase "for reasons that he explicitly knew," and these words, or words to this effect, were incorporated in a second at your motion. You urged, furthermore, very emphatically, that the letter should demand, not only Mr. Beecher's abdication of his pulpit, but the cessation of his writing for the Christian Union—a point on which you were overruled. This letter you presented to Mr. Beecher, at Mr. Freeland's house. Shortly after its presentation you sought an interview with me in the editorial office of the Brooklyn Union during which, with unaccountable emotion in your manner, your face livid with rage, you threatened with lond voice that if ever during which, with unaccountable emotion in your manner, your face livid with rage, you threatened with loud voice that if ever I should inform Mr. Beecher of the statements which you made concerning his adultery, or shofid compel you to adduce the evidence on which you agreed to sustain the demand for Mr. Beecher's withdrawal from Brooklyn, you would immediately deprive me of my engagement to write for the Independent and to edit the Brooklyn Union and that in case I should Galvantzing a Filthy Scandal.

It is high time that the torrent of slander against Henry Ward Beecher be arrested. I have in my possession a copy of a disavowal of all the charges and imputations against Mr. Beecher ever made by Henry C. Bowen, which was executed on the 2d of April. 1872. Without Mr. Beecher's knowledge, I have held this in my hands from that time to this. And now, without his knowledge, I give this document to the world, and estop and convict the principal offender against truth, public decency and the rights of reputation.

TIME TESTS THE MERITS OF ALL

For Over Thirty Years.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN-KILLER

Has been tested in every variety of climate, and by almost every nation known to Americans, it is the constant companion and inestimable rlend of the missionary and the traveler, on the sea or land, and no one should travel on our lakes or rivers, without it.

Since the Pain-Killer was first introduced, and met with such extensive sale, many Linn-ments, iteliefs, Panaceas, and other Remedies, have been offered to the public, but not one of them has attained the truly enviable standing of the Pain-Killer.

WHY IS THIS SO?

It is because Davis' Pain-Killer is what it claims to be, a Reliever of Pain. Its merits are unsurpassed.

If you are suffering from internal pain, twenty to thirty drops in a little water will almost instantly cure you. There is nothing to equal it for Colle, Cramps, Spasma, Heart-burn, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Flux, Wind in the Bowels, Sour stomach, Dysepsia, Sick Readache, etc.

In sections of the country where

FEVER AND AGUE

Prevails, there is no remedy held in greater esteem. Persons traveling should keep it by them. A few drops, in water, will prevent sickness or bowel troubles from change of water. ness or bowel troubles from change of water.

From foreign countries the calls for PainKiller are great. It is found to cure Choiera when all other remedies fail.

When used externally, as a limment, nothing gives quicker ease in burns, cuts, brubses, sprains, stings from insects, and scalds. It removes the fire, and the wound heals like ordinary sores. Those suffering with Rheumatism, Gout or Neuralgia, it not a positive cure, they find the Pain-Killer gives them relief when no other remedy will.

It gives instant relief from aching teeth,
Every housekeeper should keep it at hand, and apply it on the first attack of any pain. It will give satisfactory relief, and save hours of suffering.

De not tritle with yourselves by testing untried remedies. Be sure you call for and get the genuine Pain-Killer, as many worthless nostrums are attempted to be sold on the great reputation of this valuable medicine.
